RECOLLECTIONS

Verse 1

Did I wake up from a dream I think I need a fix,
Bad you'll say, what it seems,
Release those dirty kicks,
Reailty and the fakeness goes hand in hand,
Now I'm feeling stretched out
Like a rubber band,
The past is constantly calling, calling my name,
Meeting dawn was my downfall
And I was too blame,
Wagons on the hill,
Can't be proven but still,
They don't know how I feel,
The feeling still makes me ill,

Chrous (X 4)

Recollections, recollections recollections (Hum)

Recollections, recollections, recollections lections (Hum)

Recollections, recollections recollections (Hum)

Recollections, recollections, recollections lections (Hum)

(Hum)

Verse 2

Recollections or was it all just a dream, (Recollections)

Divide within the team

Recollections of what it seems,

In the night they beam,

They would be obscene,

Recollections of the old and misty,

Recollections time and history,

Recollections of things that can’t be undone,

Recollections of the unsung,
The damaged is already run,
(Hum)

Chorus (X 4)

(Hum)

Bridge

Live for tomorrow and fuck what they say,
Don’t let anyone bully you or get in your way,
In faith you have then in faith you will receive,
Don’t waste your breath gasping
Take time to breath,
What I tell myself is what I’m saying now,
Climb that highest mountain
And ignore those who growl,
Hate comes within and that’s a shame,
Sorry you can’t see that

And see me as the blame,

(Hum)
